

REMARKS

This application contains claims 1-57. Claims 1-50 have been canceled without prejudice. Claims 51-57 are new. No new matter has been introduced. Reconsideration is respectfully requested.

In the Official Action, the Examiner stated that claims 1-50 cover several different species of the generic invention, and required that Applicant elect one species to be examined. Among the six species listed by the examiner, Applicant has chosen to elect species I. Applicant has further chosen to cancel original claims 1-50 and replace them with new claims 51-57. The new claims fall within the category of species I, defined by the Examiner as "a mobile antenna system, among other things, microstrip antenna elements."

The new claims are supported in the specification of this patent application. The support for the claims is shown in the table below (paragraph numbers refer to the published version of the application, U.S. 2008/0129624):

New claim	Support in specification
